

University of Manchester
History Research Seminar Schedule

Autumn 2018

All seminars begin at 4:15 pm. All are welcome.

4 October – Samuel Alexander Bldg. A115

Chris Kissane (LSE) 'Kitchens & Neighbours: Food, Religion & Communities in Early Modern Europe?' followed by a comment by Rachel Winchcombe (History).

18 October – Samuel Alexander Bldg. A115

Christopher Bannister (Manchester) 'The Judeo-Masonic-Bolshevik Conspiracy in the Spanish Civil War, 1936-1939'

8 November – Samuel Alexander Bldg. A115

Tiago Mata (UCL) 'Genres of popular economics in 1970s America: economic democracy, labour activism and the tax revolt'

22 November – ***Mansfield Cooper 3.22***

Emilia Terracciano (Ruskin School of Art, Oxford) 'Sunil Janah, the famine holocaust, and the development of a modern ocular aesthetic 1943-56'

6 December – Samuel Alexander Bldg. A115

Bernhard Dietz (Johannes Gutenberg-Universität Mainz): New Approaches to the History of Conservatism: Dr. Dietz will present his new book Neo-Tories. British Conservatives in rebellion against democracy and political modernity, 1929-39, London: Bloomsbury, 2018, followed by a comment by Emily Jones (History).